

The Path, Presence, and Pleasures of God

Psalm 16

- ◆ 16:1-2 - David's _____
  - ⇒ A plea
  - ⇒ A declaration
  - ⇒ Based on a personal relationship
  - ⇒ Acknowledgement of total dependence
- ◆ 16:3-4 - David, in relation to other _____, based on his relationship with God
  - ⇒ The saints in the land
  - ⇒ Those who run after another god
- ◆ 16:5-6 - David's _____ in God
- ◆ 16:7-8 - David's delight in God's _____
- ◆ 16:9-10 - David's _____ in God
- ◆ 16:11 - David's summary of his relationship with God
  - ⇒ "You make known to me the _____ of life."
  - ⇒ "In your _____ there is fullness of joy."
  - ⇒ "At your right hand are _____ forevermore."

NOTES:

Four Practical Takeaways for This Week

- Every path does not lead to _____.
- Every tidbit of "joy" is not _____.
- Every pleasure will not last _____.
- Don't _____, therefore, for less than life, full, and forever!

Acts 2:22-39 - The New Testament Connection

"Every spiritual blessing" (Eph 1:3) is available through the "Lord and Christ, this Jesus."

- The _____ of God (Matt 7:13-14)
- The _____ of God (Heb 13:5)
- The _____ of God (Phil 1:20-23)
