

We Fail to THANK When We Forget to THINK

TEXT: Luke 17:11-19

“Why didn’t you take the time to thank the Savior who healed you?”

What might we hear in response?

- “He already _____ I’m thankful; I don’t have to _____ it.”
- “I was _____ getting better anyway.”
- “_____ the one who went; I’m not sure Jesus really did _____.”
- “No one _____ gave thanks.”
- “The Samaritan gave thanks _____ us.”
- “I don’t have leprosy _____, maybe I _____ had it.”
- “The _____ healed me.”
- “I’m just not sure this will _____.”
- “I’ll thank Jesus _____.”

“Think” and “thank” share the same root word.

We fail to _____ when we forget to _____ about how richly blessed we are.

We will THINK to THANK when:

- We recognize our desperate _____.
- We realize that we have no _____ to _____ anything from God.
- We understand what we’ve been _____.
- We grasp that what has been done _____ us could never have been done _____ us.
- We focus on the _____ above and beyond than the _____.
- We try to appreciate the _____ we cause by our lack of _____.
- We comprehend how much the _____ really _____ the giver.
