

Scripture Reading: Titus 2:11-14

They are some of the saddest words on earth: "There's no _____ for you here." Jesus, the Son of God, was on the receiving end of that message throughout his life.

There was "no room" for Jesus:

- At his _____ (Luke 2:1-14; Matthew 2:1-16)
...no room for a Ruler-_____.
- In his own _____ (Luke 4:16-30)
...no room for an Anointed _____.
- In the life of a rich young _____ (Luke 18:18-25)
...no room for an All-Knowing _____ who tells me exactly what I need to hear.
- In the great city of _____ (Luke 19:41-44, 47)
...no room for the _____ who comes with an offer of peace.
- At his _____ (Luke 23:16-25, 32-38, 44-46)
...no room for the _____, the Chosen One of God.

Why would Jesus come to a world where there was "no room" for him?

- To reveal once and for all that there is room in his _____ (Luke 23:39-43)

Is there room for Jesus in your life? (Titus 2:11-14)

- Room for _____? For _____? For _____?
For a new life-_____?
