

What does it mean to be female as envisioned by our Creator?

“Have You Not Read...?” (Matt 19:4)
The Fundamental Facts

- Having read eight times about what is “good,” we come to a jarring _____ (Gen 2:18a).
- God took it upon himself to make “a _____” (‘ezer - one who supplies strength in an area that is lacking in “the helped”) for the man (Gen 2:18b).
- This helper would need to be someone “_____” (corresponding to) man (Gen 2:18c).
- Of all the other living _____, there was not found “a helper fit” for Adam (Gen 2:19-20).
- So the LORD God fashioned a specific and perfect helper for man (Gen 2:21-23).
 1. Completely _____ in their value and in their full humanity (Gen 1:27)
 2. _____ in the way they relate and function, a distinction grounded in the nature of God (1 Cor 11:3) and his very good creation (1 Tim 2:13)
 3. Equally made in God’s image, equally in need of _____ (Rom 3:23), equally _____ (Gal 3:28; 1 Pet 3:7), and equally to be resurrected and glorified as _____ of God (1 John 3:1-2)
- _____ is an institution designed and defined by God wherein man and woman can be joined together in a sacred covenant that glorifies God in a unique way (Gen 2:24; Eph 5:31-32).

What Does Victorious Femininity Look Like? Input From a Wise Source

- The woman _____: the opposite of victorious femininity (Prov 9:13-18; 5:3-6)
- The woman _____: the epitome of victorious femininity (Prov 9:1-6, 10; 31:30; 3:13-20, 5-8).