

All Things NEW

Scripture Reading: Revelation 21:1-5

As December gives way to January and 2018 turns to 2019, many of us are thinking NEW.

Jesus: Master of All Things NEW

- ▶ The bringer of new _____ with authority (Mark 1:27)
- ▶ The foreteller of a new _____ (Matt 19:28)
- ▶ The deliverer of a new _____ (John 13:34)
- ▶ The establisher of a new _____ (Luke 22:19-20)
- ▶ The enabler of new _____ with the Father (Matt 26:28-29)
- ▶ The brief inhabitant of a new _____ (Matt 27:59-60; 28:6)

The Gospel: Key to All Things NEW

- ▶ We can be raised to walk in newness of _____ (Rom 6:3-4)
- ▶ We can serve in the new way of the _____ (Rom 7:4-6)
- ▶ We can be new _____ (2 Cor 5:16-17)
- ▶ We can put on the new _____ and experience ongoing renewal (Col 3:5-10)
- ▶ We can anxiously anticipate new _____ and a new _____ (2 Pet 3:11-13)
- ▶ We can rest in, live for, and be saved by the One who makes _____ things new (Rev 21:5)

The Question: Path to or Loss of All Things NEW

“Who is the _____ of your life?” (Acts 3:13-15)

- ▶ Whether you acknowledge him or not, he’s the author of your _____ life (Col 1:16-17)
- ▶ For those who submit to him as Leader and Savior, he’s the author of _____ life (Acts 5:30-31)
- ▶ Whether you submit to him or not, he’s the author of _____ life (John 5:28-29)
