

Discipleship Demands Discernment

Scripture Reading:
Hebrews 4:12-13

To _____ is to perceive by sight or some other sense; to test or be taught and recognize. God has blessed me with that ability, and he expects me to use that ability (Rom 12:1-2).

Does Discernment Really Matter? Path #1

- I allow myself to be "_____ of hearing" (Heb 5:11)
- I tune out the basic _____ of God (Heb 5:12)
- There is very little "standing _____" me (Deut 32:28-29)
- I am _____ in the word of righteousness (Heb 5:13)
- I am _____ in my discernment of purpose, way, and end
- I frequently fail to _____ good from evil
- I neglect to _____ my faith with others
- I _____ in disobedience (Heb 4:11)
- I fail to enter the _____ of God (Heb 4:1)

The Difference Discernment Makes? Path #2

- I hear and listen with a good and honest _____ (Luke 8:15)
- I progress from the fundamentals of the faith to "_____ food" (Heb 5:14)
- What is increasingly "standing under" me leads to _____
- I develop _____ in the word of righteousness
- I _____ in my discernment of purpose, way, and end
- I distinguish good from evil by constant _____ (Heb 5:14)
- I joyfully _____ my faith with others (Heb 5:12)
- I walk by faith in _____
- I am blessed to enter the _____ of God (Heb 4:9-11)