

At the beginning (106:1) and end (106:48) of Psalm 106:
“Praise the LORD!” Why?

- ➔ He is _____
- ➔ His steadfast _____ endures forever
- ➔ He is a God of “mighty _____”
- ➔ He _____ those who observe justice and do righteousness
- ➔ He remembers and _____ his people

The problem? Too often, his people haven't remembered him.

Psalm 106's Ugly Gallery

- ◆ They resisted being _____ by his wondrous works and steadfast love (106:7-12; Exo 14)
- ◆ They allowed unrestrained cravings to override their willingness to _____ for his counsel (106:13-15; Num 11)
- ◆ They acted out of _____ and selfish ambition (106:16-18; Num 16)
- ◆ They exchanged the glory of God for something they could _____ (106:19-23; Exo 32)
- ◆ They didn't _____ his promises and refused to follow his _____ (106:24-27; Num 14)
- ◆ They yoked themselves to _____ (106:28-31; Num 25)
- ◆ They _____ in the face of his faithfulness (106:32-33; Num 20)
- ◆ They settled for half-measures and compromised _____ (106:34-39; Judg 1-3)
- ◆ They took God's deliverance for _____ (106:40-43; Judges)
- ◆ “ _____...” (106:44-46)

Will we treat Psalm 106 like a _____ or a _____? (106:47,6)
