

Chapters 60-62

1. Twice in these opening verses the expression, 'the Lord will rise upon you' (60:1,2). What does that mean?
2. A change is taking place. From being 'forsaken and hated' (60:15) they will become a joyous pride. What changed?

3. Chapter 61:1-3 is quoted where in the N.T. Who is this applied to?
4. In what way will the people be called "priests of the Lord" (61:6)? Judah was not the priestly tribe.
5. Why would they "rejoice" in the Lord (61:10-11)?
6. You will be called a "new name" (62:2). What is that name?
7. What promise does God make (62:8)?

Thought Questions:

- It's often hard to move past dark valleys and hard times. This section is a wonderful display of that very thing. How can we help people to "forget the past" and move forward?
