

TOMORROW'S PRAYER

1 Chronicles 22:1-13

One of the great paradoxes in the Bible is the balance between Today & Tomorrow. We can't live in tomorrow, but we can't forget tomorrow. What we do today shapes and colors our tomorrow.

- A. David wanted to build a p_____ temple for the Lord
1. God would allow _____ to build the temple
 2. The _____ did not include David

What's going to happen to our children?

B. The Steps of David (1 Chronicles 22)

1. He understood _____ where Solomon _____ (22:5)
2. He e_____ Solomon (22:11, 13)
3. He t_____ Solomon (22:12)
4. He e_____ Solomon
 - he provided s_____ & p_____ (22:14-15; 2-5)
 - he thought out d_____ (28:11-19)
 - he encouraged the _____ to get _____ (29:6-9)
5. He built a _____ around Solomon (22:17-19)
6. He _____ for Solomon (29:10-20)

David did more than just dream about tomorrow:

1. He t_____ about the future
2. He p_____ about the future
3. He had d_____ plans about the future
4. He did _____ about the future

C. David's Prayer For Tomorrow (1 Chron 29:18-19)

1. Preserve a heart that is _____ upon God (29:18)
Deut 6:4-9 On your h_____, t_____, t_____, v_____ reminders
2. Direct the heart in God's _____ (29:18)
Thoughts to actions...intentions to steps
Right _____: s_____, not always e_____, not always p_____, bring us c_____ to the Lord
3. Create a heart that wants to _____ (29:19)
To respect _____, appreciate _____, to end the r_____ spirit
- Before he prayed for Solomon, he prayed for _____ (PS 51:10)

D. Come before _____ (2 Tim 4:21)

- before it's _____
- while a _____ can be made
- and do what you _____

E. Tomorrow's Prayer is more than a wish

- Covid-19 has us focused upon _____
- Satan wants us to forget _____

To have a strong, loving and faithful church:

We must use the Bible _____ and _____

We must think _____
We must _____ a spiritual _____

We must utilize the _____ before us
We must _____
