

Ken Coleman wrote: Good questions inform, great questions transform.

- There are more than 3,000 questions in the Bible
- Life is full of questions. Good questions. Probing questions. Silly questions. Dumb questions. Personal questions. Questions that have no definitive answer. There are many questions that do not matter.

There are questions that do matter. These questions make us pause. These questions make us think.

1. Does it matter that we believe in _____? (Ps 100:3)

He made us _____ Him: c_____, capability of

r_____

We live _____ and _____

He calls us to be _____ to Him (Rom 14:10-12; 2 Cor 5:10)

- His f_____ is throughout your life (Ps 19:1-6; Rom 1:20-21)

2. Does it matter that we _____ the _____? (Ps 19:7-11)

Without the _____ we cannot know _____

Just how _____ are we _____ the _____ (Acts 17:11)

3. Does it matter if we become _____?

- Luke 13:3; John 3:16; Mark 16:15-16
- Sins do not e_____, e_____ or _____ away
- More than being _____, it is developing the _____ of Christ (Col 3:5-17)

4. Does it matter which _____ we _____?

"Aren't they all basically the _____?"

Gen 4:2-5 How we _____ matters

- some have lost the p_____ and f_____ of what the church is

Believing in God provides the building blocks in life:

- I _____
- P _____
- D _____
- W _____

Does it matter that some are not _____ the Bible?
 Does it matter that some do _____ not in the Bible?
 Does it matter that some do _____ they _____?
Revelation 22:18-19