

Troubles Without & Fears Within

Wednesday Evening Series in September

Putting a Lid on Discouragement

“Perhaps...”

- Do we know if these troubles are from Satan or God?
- If Satan, what is he trying to accomplish?
- If God, what’s the point?
- Since we don’t know, how are we to behave?

2020 has been a year of major disruptions and one ripple effect for many has been discouragement. Why do you think discouragement has been such a common reaction?

Left unaddressed, discouragement can blossom into a toxic mindset and destructive way of life. What have you found helpful in the fight to “put a lid” on discouragement?

Knowing what you know now, what would you have done differently in March?

“Take Courage...”

- “But you, take courage! Do not let your hands be weak, for your _____ shall be rewarded.” (2 Chron 15:7)
- _____ for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the LORD! (Psa 27:14)
- The following night the Lord stood by him and said, “Take courage, for as you have testified to the facts about me in Jerusalem, so you _____ testify also in Rome.” (Acts 23:11)
