

The Building Blocks of Our Universe

- 7,500,000,000,000,000,000 grains of _____
- 70,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 _____

The very first verse of the Bible (Genesis 1:1) tells us:

"In the beginning, _____..."

He was already

It wasn't an

"And God said..." throughout Genesis 1:

- * Day 1 - _____ (1:3)
- * Day 2 - expanse or _____ (1:6)
- * Day 3 - _____, plants & trees (1:9, 11)
- * Day 4 - _____, moon & stars (1:14)
- * Day 5 - birds & _____ creatures (1:20)
- * Day 6 - land animals & _____ (1:24, 26)

Do you know what we learn from that?

- ❖ _____ are not an _____.
- ❖ _____ have a _____.

Before we're done, notice carefully Genesis 2:16:

"And the LORD God _____ the man..."

Because God is the Creator, he has the right to tell us how the pieces fit together and what we ought to be building. That's life the way it was meant to be!

For Family Discussion:

- What are a few of your favorite things that God made?
- What difference does it make whether or not we believe that God is our Creator?
- When we act like God isn't there, does life get better or worse? Why?
