

A Close Look at 2 Timothy 3:15-17

As the apostle Paul encourages a young person named Timothy to “continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed,” notice what Timothy has learned and why it’s worth believing.

...and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the _____ writings...

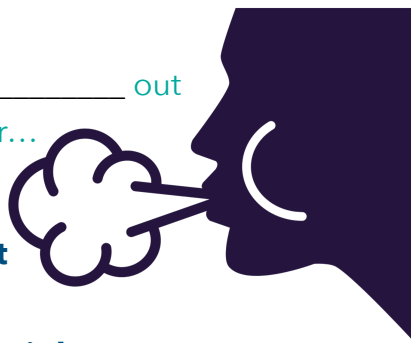

Rooted in the idea that God is ...which are able to make you...

- _____
 - for _____
 - through _____
- ...in Christ Jesus.

All Scripture is _____ out by God and profitable for...

- _____
what _____ right
- _____
what _____ right
- _____
how to _____ right
- _____
how to _____ right

...in _____ eousness, that the man of God may be complete, _____ for every good work.

For Family Discussion:

- Your Bible is full of “sacred” writings. Jason used the example of shoes. Can you think of another example? How about the difference between an everyday dress and a wedding dress? What makes something “sacred”?
- What makes the writings in your Bible “sacred”? They are “breathed out” by God. Why is this a really big deal?
- How does someone become “acquainted with” these sacred writings like Timothy?

Bible Readings for This Week:

- ☐ 2 Timothy 3
The sacred writings
- ☐ Psalms 119:9-16
I will not forget your word
- ☐ Psalms 119:33-40
Incline my heart
- ☐ Psalms 119:97-104
My meditation all the day
- ☐ Psalms 119:105-112
A light to my path

Next Weekend:

A Library of 66 Books