

We've learned all sorts of things about Jesus from "the holy Scriptures." Remember just a few, from Romans 1:

- Descended from David: the Old Testament fingerprint
- According to the flesh: the Son of Man
- The dead: the sacrificial Lamb of God
- Declared to be the Son of God: but how? How do we know that Jesus is the Son of God?

...in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his _____ from the dead... (Rom 1:4)

Did that really happen?

"He is _____ here, for he has _____." (Matt 28:6)

There were many eyewitnesses of his resurrection:

...he _____ to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than _____ hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. (1 Cor 15:5-6)

What does it mean?

"Go therefore and make _____" (Matt 28:19)

And so, Paul reasoned with Felix (and others) about:

- righteousness - what is _____.
- self-control - how to _____.
- the coming judgment - he's going to come _____.

For Family Discussion:

- In Romans 1:4, when Paul calls Jesus "our Lord," what does he mean? If Jesus is our Lord, then...
- Let's go back and carefully read Matthew 28:16-20. How does someone become a "disciple" of Jesus?
- In Acts 24:25, as Paul reasons with Felix about righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix tells Paul to go away. Why would anyone do that?

Bible Readings for This Week:

- Matthew 28
The resurrection
- John 20:19-31
Jesus appears to Thomas
- John 21:1-14
Jesus appears in Galilee
- 1 Corinthians 15:1-28
I would remind you...
- 1 Corinthians 15:35-58
Death is swallowed up

Next Weekend:

NEW SERIES:
What is the Church?