

At Your Word

Luke 5:1-9

Every story has a beginning. How did Jesus choose the apostles?

A. Jesus' words promised three things (Luke 5:4)

- There are _____ in the water
- They are in the _____
- You will _____ them

B. At Your Word I will (Luke 5:5)

NAS: At your bidding I will

KJV: N _____

- A moment of T _____ and a moment of S _____
- So often we want to _____ with God

Peter's Reply:

We have worked _____

We have worked _____

We got _____

W _____ out

D _____

Getting _____

Three Quick Lessons:

(1) The Lord _____ more than we do

- God knows _____ that we are not aware of
- God knows how we can be _____
- God knows the value of _____

(2) The Lord _____ what we cannot _____

- God sees _____
- God sees _____
- God sees our _____
- He sees our _____ (Ps 56:8)
- He hears our _____
- He knows the _____ we do (Mt 10:42)

(3) The Lord _____ us to _____ things

- The Lord had greater things for them to do
- They would go _____ all the _____
- They would be _____ of _____

The Lord helps us to mend _____
The Lord helps us to set our _____ on things above
The Lord helps us to _____ first His _____

NEVERTHELESS, I WILL:

When I am _____ and do not _____ like it

When it is _____

When it is _____