"From God to the Road"

Jason Hardin

My wife Shelly used to babysit a little boy named Dustin who would tell her every once in a while that he loved her "from God to the road." That was just about as big and wide as Dustin could imagine at 3 years old. "From God to the road."

In Psalm 36, David seems to be similarly stretching for words to describe the matchless wonder of our gracious Creator.

Your steadfast love, O LORD, extends to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds.

*Your righteousness is like the mountains of God;
your judgments are like the great deep... (36:5-6)*

Recognizing these truths led David to worship, and the next few lines of Psalm 36 continue to serve as a fountain of fuel for our own worship today.

How precious is your steadfast love, O God!

The children of mankind take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

*They feast on the abundance of your house,
and you give them drink from the river of your delights.*

*For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light do we see light.*

Oh, continue your steadfast love to those who know you, and your righteousness to the upright of heart! (36:7-10)

What wonderful words to savor as we offer our own sacrifice of praise today – precious, steadfast, refuge, abundance, delight – blessings that continue to stretch from God to the road.

To our guests...
