

From a tree in a garden, to a tree on a hill of death, to a tree in a heavenly city, if you understand the trees, you're well on your way to understanding the Bible's story—a story that can be summarized by God's call to "_____ and _____."

🌳 Trust: our _____, the refreshment and stability of our hearts
(Eph 3:14-19a).

🌳 Obey: our _____ and fullness (Eph 3:19b-21).

In the beginning, God _____ (Gen 1-2)

🌳 After forming Adam "of dust from the ground" and breathing into his nostrils "the breath of life," God planted a _____ (2:7-9a)

🌳 Our God is a gracious _____, giving us what we need and so much more (Rom 1:19-21; Matt 6:25-33)

🌳 Two _____ were "in the midst" of the garden (Gen 2:9b)

Fundamental to life in the garden was a _____ (2:15-17)

🌳 To prohibit is to forbid; to prevent or hinder. Why? (Isa 55:8-9)

🌳 The serpent tempted Eve (Gen 3:1-6) by luring and enticing her with her own _____ (James 1:13-15)

🌳 Ever since, this is the battleground (1 John 2:15-17; Mark 4:3-20)

This week, over and over again, you'll be faced with this question: "What's my _____?" (John 4:31-34; Prov 3:5-8)
