

The Psalms: The Rejected Cornerstone

BUILDING

SEARCHING FOR THE KING

Can you find the book of PSALMS in your Bible? We're going to read from Psalm 118 today. We're looking at some of the psalms this month and noticing how they are quoted many years later in the New Testament. What's the connection to Jesus? How do the psalms help us see our King and understand his will for our lives?

Psalm 118 calls us to say "thank you" to God.

Oh give _____ to the LORD, for he is good;
for his steadfast love endures forever! (118:1)

Notice especially what we find in Psalm 118:22-23:

The stone that the builders rejected has become the _____.
This is the LORD's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.

So what does that have to do with OUR King, Jesus? In Matthew 21, Jesus made his triumphal entry into Jerusalem. He cleansed the temple, but not everybody was happy to see him. They wanted to know, "Why are you here, and who told you to do these things?" Listen carefully to what Jesus said in Matthew 21:42. He asked, "Have you never read in the Scriptures?" And then he quotes Psalm 118:22-23. Why?

What did Jesus want EVERYONE to see? Listen to what he said next...

"Therefore I tell you, the _____ of God will be taken away from you and given to a people producing its fruits. And the one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and when it falls on anyone, it will crush him." (Matthew 21:43-44)

What's the connection? What does it have to do with our search for our King? How does Jesus fulfill Psalm 118? Let's talk about it...
