

All the Promises of God Find Their “Yes” in Him

What a journey we’ve been on over the past year as we’ve searched together for what can be known about our King in the Old Testament Scriptures! That journey began on the road to Emmaus when the resurrected Jesus walked for a while with two downcast disciples.

And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he _____ to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. (Luke 24:27)

Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about _____ in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be _____.” (Luke 24:44)

The final scripture in our search is 2 Corinthians 1:20:

For all the _____ of God find their _____ in him. That is why it is through him that we utter our Amen to God for his glory.

What an incredible summary! Our God has “granted to us” a treasure chest of “precious and very great promises” (2 Pet 1:4), and one of the most profound ways to appreciate God’s amazing plan is to think of Jesus as the ultimate “Yes” to those promises.

If Jesus is...

- The _____
- The _____ of God
- The great High _____
- The good _____
- The _____ of the tribe of Judah
- The eternal _____ of kings

“It is finished.”

For Class & Family Discussion:

- Peter describes the promises of God as “precious and very great” (2 Pet 1:4). When you think “promises of God,” what comes to mind? What “precious and very great promises” stand out to you? Let’s make a list of some of the life-changing, hope-giving promises in the Bible. If you’re stumped, Hebrews 13:5-6 might be a good place to start...

- Looking at our list above, in what way do those promises of God “find their Yes” in Jesus?

- What do you think Paul meant when he made the connection in 2 Corinthians 1:20 that “it is through [Jesus] that we utter our Amen to God for his glory”? What does he mean by that statement?

- Finally, let’s think carefully through and discuss together the implications of this incredible picture of our King we’ve seen unfold throughout the Old Testament. If Jesus is ... what does it demand of me? What is my responsibility? How should it change every aspect of my life. If Jesus is...
  - The Prophet (Deut 18:15)...

  - The Lamb of God (John 1:29; 1 Cor 5:7)...

  - The great High Priest (Heb 7:23-26)...

  - The good Shepherd (John 10:11)...

  - The Lion of the tribe of Judah (Rev 5:5)...

  - The eternal King of kings (Rev 19:16)...
