

"O LORD my God, you are very great!" (Psa 104:1). One way to appreciate his greatness is to notice the verbs:

- _____ (104:2)
- Lays (104:3)
- _____ (104:3, 4, 10, 19, 20, 24)
- Rides (104:4)
- _____ (104:5, 9)
- Covered (104:6)
- _____ (104:8)
- Water (104:13, 16)
- _____ (104:14)
- Planted (104:16)

- _____ (104:26)
- Give (104:27-28)
- _____ (104:30)

Psalm 104 mirrors the week of creation:

- Day 1: _____ (104:1-4)
- Day 2: waters (104:5-13)
- Day 3: plants & _____ (104:14-18)
- Day 4: the _____ & moon (104:19-23)
- Day 5: sea creatures (104:24-26)
- Day 6: _____ (104:27-30)

Who's missing? _____ are! So where can we find ourselves—as God would have us—in Psalm 104?
