

Joshua's Life Lessons for Us

We have come to our final lesson in this study of Joshua. And, as we have seen several times in this study, rocks were used as reminders of great events. The book of Joshua ought to be a great rock and reminder for us.

1. A Reminder that we can be _____ to God while in a land that does not know God

What challenges and threats did Joshua face in the Promise land?

- Surrounded in a culture that is moving swiftly away from God, how do we remain faithful?
 -
 -
 -
- Consistency can be hard (Jas 1:26; 3:9-10)
Eph 4:14 (Mt 6:24)

The Daily Faith

- Mt 6:11 daily _____
- Lk 9:23 daily _____
- Heb 3:13 daily _____
- Acts 5:42; 17:11 daily _____
with God and others

2. A Reminder that Leaders _____ - It's not their position but their character

- (a) make the _____ call (Josh 7)
- (b) keeping their _____ (Josh 6:7; ch 10)
- (c) being an _____ (24:15)
- (d) constantly _____ to the Lord (23:6-9)

Sin _____ us out (Num 32:23)
 Sin comes with _____
 Sin often _____ others
 For Achan there was no _____
 • Rom 8:1 (1 Jn 1:7)
*Fellowship with God and sins in our life exist concurrently
 A sinner who is in fellowship with God*

3. A Reminder of the _____

- (a) Joshua's Hebrew name is the _____ as Jesus' (means God is salvation)
- (b) Joshua _____ the nation to the promise land as Jesus leads us
- (c) Joshua crossing the Jordan is an illustration of our _____ into Christ
- (d) Joshua served as a _____ between the nation and God. Jesus is that to us (1 Tim 2:5)
- (e) Joshua _____ the evil in the land as Christ drives the _____ out of our hearts

1. Your greatest challenge may still be _____ of you
2. Your greatest challenge is met by _____ of earlier challenges you have already faced
3. Your greatest challenge is faced because of your _____ in Jesus Christ