

Luke 23:42 “And he was saying, ‘Jesus remember me when You come in your kingdom!’”

1. He saw that there was room in the kingdom for _____ like _____

He was not a _____

He made _____

- He saw that Jesus was willing to _____ those who had put Him on the cross (Lk 23:34)

2. He saw that _____ the door of _____ was _____

All three men on the cross were _____

No one came off the cross _____

What’s the point of remembering if there is nothing _____

- Luke 16:19-22, 25, 27, 28

3. He saw that the _____ belonged to the _____

Usually when a king or ruler dies, the power _____ to someone else

Years of crime did not bring any _____

Years of sin did not bring any _____

- He wanted to be in that kingdom of Jesus

4. He saw that the Lord really _____

Jesus’ answer was: _____ will be with _____ in Paradise

It was not too _____

- Jesus did not stop their _____

The conversation between two dying men—a sinner and a Savior

He wanted to be with Jesus—and the Lord allowed that

One died a criminal. One died a Savior. One died saved.