SUNDAY MORNING SERMON JASON HARDIN

Ps	alm 37, an ancient poem written by David, leads us to green pastures. Trust in the LORD, and do good;
	dwell in the land and (37:3)
1.	You've "," are "," and will continue to " as long as you live (Psa 1:1-2).
2.	You eat where you (Psa 1:1; Job 17:1-2; Phil 4:8).
3.	You what you eat
	which is why the good shepherd of Psalm 37 nudges us away from
	• not yourself because of evildoers (37:1a, 7b-8)
	• Be not of wrongdoers (37:1b)
	• Refrain from (37:8a; Eph 4:31, 26-27)
	• Forsake(37:8b; Gal 5:15)
	and invites us toward
	• in the LORD (37:3a; Exo 34:6; Psa 119:68)
	• Do(37:3b; Matt 12:33-37)
	• yourself in the LORD (37:4, 16, 23-24, 30-31, 39-40)
	• Commit your to the LORD (37:5; 23:1-3)
	• Be before the LORD and wait patiently for him (37:7)
	• Turn away from (37:27)
	 Wait for the LORD and his way (37:34)
	which is all another way of saying, "feed on faithfulness."
Th	e heart of the good news this morning: is (1 Cor 1:4-9
