

In Joshua 24, the old leader of Israel gathers all the tribes together. He tells them their family story (24:2-12), tracing it all the way to where they stood that day (24:13), and impresses upon them: "It's time to make _____ choice" (24:14-15):

- Put away all other _____
- _____ the LORD
- Serve him in _____ and in faithfulness

They made the choice: "He is _____ God" (24:16-18, 31), but the next generation and multiple generations to come failed to make that same choice (Judg 2:10-23).

What does it look and sound like to make the choice today? How can I develop my own personal relationship with this same God?

- "There's something here I need to _____." (Judg 2:17; Luke 8:8)
- "The Son of God died for _____" (Rom 5:6-8); "he died for my _____."
- "By the grace of God, I can have a sincere, purified _____." (Titus 2:11-14a; 3:4-7; John 3:5; Acts 2:38)
- "I _____ to this great God and Savior." (Titus 2:14b)
- "I no longer live for _____; I live for him." (2 Cor 5:14-15)
- "I must keep myself from _____." (Judg 2:11-13; 1 John 5:21)
- "I will walk, live by, and keep in step with the _____." (Gal 5:16-25)
- "I want him to be _____ strength, my song, my salvation, _____ God." (Exo 15:2)
