

What happened on the other side of the waters? In some cases, we know.

- ~ On the other side of the Red Sea (Exo 14:30-31), would Israel continue to respect the LORD's awesome power, _____ him, _____ in him and in his servant Moses? (16:1-3; 17:3, 7; 32:1; Num 13:27, 31; 14:1-4)
- ~ On the other side of the water that flowed out of a rock (Num 20:10-12), would Moses continue to believe in the LORD and _____ him as _____? (Deut 3:23-28; 31:1-8)
- ~ On the other side of the Sea of Galilee, would Jesus be sought for _____ or just personal _____ (John 6:22-27, 30-31, 35, 41, 66-69)?

In other cases, we're not told what happened the next day or the day after that.

- ~ On the other side of Jacob's well, would the Samaritan woman continue to look to Jesus as the _____ of the world (John 4:42)? Did godly grief produce a _____ that led her to salvation (2 Cor 7:10)? Having heard about the Father from the Son himself (John 4:22-24), what now?
- ~ On the other side of the Jordan River, with flesh restored like that of a child, who would Naaman, commander of the Syrian army, _____ (2 Kings 5:15)?

So we also...

- ~ Having been set free from the slavery of _____, what now? (Rom 6:16-18)
- ~ On what or who is our _____ set? (1 Pet 1:13-16)
- ~ Am I treating Jesus as _____ or _____?
- ~ Has godly _____ set me on the path of repentance that leads to salvation?
- ~ Who am I on the other side of God's _____? (Titus 3:1-11; 2:11-14)
