Holding Fast to Which Purpose?

Jason Hardin

In Psalm 64, David describes some people who "hold fast to their evil purpose." It's as if their hearts, having been anchored to evil, are filled with purpose that dishonors their Creator and harms the people around them. That's the sad situation described in the first six verses of Psalm 64.

After reminding himself and his readers that we are all accountable to the God who sees everything, including what we try to hide (64:7-8), a different sort of purpose is highlighted (64:9-10). It's life the way it was meant to be.

As I hear what God has brought about across (and even before) the history of mankind, my heart is filled with fearful respect. I'm moved to pay attention and ponder what the Lord of heaven and earth has accomplished (64:9). Isn't that one of the reasons we're gathered together today? To hear, ponder, and grow in respect for our Creator?

This hearing and pondering ought to move me to do whatever is necessary to be declared "righteous" in the eyes of a God who has already done so much for me. His grace, mercy, and steadfast love compels me to "rejoice in the LORD," but that's not just a Sunday thing. As a way of life, I'm driven to "take refuge in him," to live "uprightly" and devote the rest of my time on earth to "exulting," a Bible word that means to joyfully praise and give glory to God (64:10).

Every single person on the planet is holding fast to some purpose. What about you? Is it life the way it was meant to be?

JULY 16:
I KNOW THOU ART MINE
PRESENTED BY NATHAN COMBS

@CharlestownRoad The Heaven Bound podcast
on social media Mondays, Wednesdays & Fridays

Think of the _____ of a boat (Acts 27:41) as your body (1 Thes 4:3-5), the sea as a world full of opportunities, circumstances, and challenges, and your _____ as the sail. You didn't ask for a body and there's plenty about the world around you that's beyond your control, but you can "set the sail" of your attitude (the way you're _____ relative to where you want to _____).

- Your attitude produces a _____.
- Your mindset fuels your _____.
- Your actions slowly generate _____.
- Your habits come to form your _____.
- Your lifestyle ultimately determines your _____.

Much deeper than, "Just tell me..." what about the attitude? Is it an attitude of _____, of yielding control to the authority, wisdom, or will of another?

- 2 Corinthians 9:13: "...your submission that comes from your _____ of the gospel of Christ" (Matt 4:23) - fueled the Corinthians to be generous, content (9:8), _____ givers (9:7)
- James 4:10: " _____ yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you" - compels me to walk in the wisdom from _____ (3:13-18)
- 1 Peter 4:1: "arm yourselves with the same way of _____" - leads to my living the rest of my life for the will of _____ (4:2-7)
- Romans 8:5-8: on what is my mind set? Think of a _____. The problem with a mind set on the flesh? "It does not _____ to God's law" (Exo 15:25-26).

How is my sail set? Is it set with an attitude of submission (Heb 12:1-2; 6:19-20)?
