Daily

Jason Hardin

How many years have you been alive? We say to each other here and there, "The days are long but the years are short." Have you ever thought about what happens in the span of just one of those "short" years of life?

365 sunrises.

52 Lord's days.

730 meals, not including breakfasts.

7.5 million breaths.

36 million heartbeats.

Take a moment to reflect on those numbers, most of them far beyond our control, in light of Psalm 68:19:

Blessed be the Lord,
who daily bears us up;
God is our salvation.

To be "borne" is to be carried. It's what you do with a trunkload of groceries. It's what mothers and fathers do with newborn babies. And it's the way David describes what our Creator has done with every generation of human beings since Adam and Eve. Day after day, every single day, he carries us along.

It's why Psalm 68 encourages us to "Sing to God, sing praises to his name" (68:4). God is our salvation. He is awesome in every sense of the word (68:35). We've gathered today to bless him for many reasons. As we sing, pray, study, and remember together, let's appreciate this one: he bears us up. Daily. "His name is the LORD; exult before him!" (68:4)

So often following Jesus is viewed as difficult, enduring, hard, long and even painful. A different mindset would change how we see things. “I love being a child of God,” shifts from duty to desire; from have-to, to want-to.
