

You probably don't remember his name. In fact, you might not have ever even heard his name.

The LORD said to Moses, "See, I have called by name _____ the son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with ability and intelligence, with knowledge and all craftsmanship, to devise artistic designs, to work in gold, silver, and bronze, in cutting stones for setting, and in carving wood, to work in every craft." (Exo 31:1-5)

He was "just a craftsman," but his skillful work outlived generation after generation. He made...

- The _____ (37:1)
- The _____ (37:10)
- The _____ (37:17)
- The _____ of incense (37:25)
- The altar of burnt _____ (38:1; 2 Chron 1:5-6)

...and his work has impacted God's people for millennia. What can we learn from the LORD's craftsman?

- ✎ The work is _____ than the craftsman.
- ✎ We should never take for granted what God can do with "just a craftsman" who has the heart of a _____.
- ✎ Our "craftsmanship" may long _____ us.
- ✎ Even the best of what we make and do will eventually break down and be _____.
- ✎ If our "craftsmanship" served _____ and touched human _____, though the raw materials (and we ourselves) break down, the effort will have been more than _____ it.
