Make a Joyful Noise to the LORD

Jason Hardin

Psalm 98 draws our attention to several "marvelous" things our Creator has done.

The LORD has made known his salvation;
he has revealed his righteousness
in the sight of the nations.

He has remembered his steadfast love and faithfulness
to the house of Israel.

All the ends of the earth have seen
the salvation of our God. (Psa 98:1-3)

So what about us? It's one thing to acknowledge our Creator's existence. It's certainly worthwhile to study the great things he has done. But beyond acknowledgement and intellectual awareness, notice what Psalm 98 encourages us to do.

Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth;
break forth into joyous song and sing praises! (98:4)

Why? Because that's what his creation was created to do.

Let the sea roar, and all that fills it;
the world and those who dwell in it!

Let the rivers clap their hands;
let the hills sing for joy together before the LORD,
for he comes to judge the earth.

He will judge the world with righteousness,
and the peoples with equity. (98:7-9)

What an incredible opportunity and blessing to join with creation in singing the praises of our Creator. Let's bring him our best.
