The Manifold Works of Our Maker

Jason Hardin

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD my God, you are very great! (104:1)

Psalm 104 takes us on an amazing tour of God's creation.

- He has stretched out the heavens like a tent (104:2-4)
- He set the earth on its foundations, causing the mountains to rise, the valleys to sink, and the waters to fill the deep (104:5-9)
- He waters the mountains, making springs gush forth in the valleys, giving drink to every beast of the field (104:10-13)
- He causes the grass to grow for the livestock and plants for man to cultivate (104:14-15)
- He abundantly waters the trees, giving the birds a home in their branches (104:16-18)
- He made the moon to mark the seasons, the sun to rise and set, providing night for the beasts to creep about and day for man to labor in the light (104:19-23)
- The wide sea teems with innumerable creatures (104:24-26)
- All living things, both great and small, were created to look to their Creator (104:27-30)

Psalm 104 takes us on an amazing tour of God's creation, but it also stands as a timeless call to do more than marvel at the majesty of the world around us. Psalm 104 is ultimately a call to worship. "I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being" (104:33).

This is his world. He continues to graciously provide life and breath and everything, so let's answer that call to worship today.
