

Raising Boys to be Men

In the last lesson we looked at the role of leadership that God expects men to fill. In this lesson, we want to consider how to fill those steps in "raising boys to be men."

It's easy to see what doesn't work. In seeing that, it helps us to see what does work.

Seven Ways We Miss the Mark in Raising Men

1. Prioritize career and hobbies over family
2. Value pleasure over purpose
3. Quickness to dismiss people who do not agree with us
4. Caring more about getting credits than developing character
5. Elevating my agenda over everyone else's
6. Putting ourselves ahead of our wives
7. Valuing networking over genuine friendships

- A. The Best way to show a boy what a man is comes from the example of a father who is a man of God Learning from Jesus, shows the qualities of being godly, humble, compassionate, gentle and have a servant's heart (Mt 11:28-30; Jn 13:13-14; Mt 10:25)
