Dear brethren and friends,
hope to find you doing fine. Here's my November 2026 report about my preaching work in Rome. Good reading.

God bless you all. Love.

Stefano

NEWS FROM ROME (ITALY)

Rome, November 12, 2025

Dear brethren in Him, my wife Antonella and I hope to find each one of you doing fine in all blessings. We would like to express again our deep feelings of thankfulness for all you're doing in our behalf, making possible our fully preaching of gospel's power also in Rome. We are daily in the midst of Bible ignorance, human traditions, religious superstitions, modern paganism. Anyhow, we're striving to do what we can to announce God's Will in this arid "desert". We certainly hope and pray to find good people with whom to bring good fruit to the Lord.

PERSONAL NEWS. We are doing just fine, in spite of our coming age. We are under regular check controls and all seems to proceed well. Our three lovely grandchildren (Alessandro, Alice, Samuele) are also doing fine. They are daily particularly busy with school activities and homework, and we try to help as much as we can. To be grandparents is really a heavy job!

Our son Paolo is doing fine. Busy with his job but happy to be back in Rome. He's helping the local work and improving in many things. As I already wrote, he could be a strong source for the future of this work. We need to work in this direction, avoiding to waste all the spiritual things done in so many years.

LOCAL PREACHING ACTIVITY. Our local work is keeping on fine, with passion and good judgements. Especially the young group of brethren is growing well, becoming a good example to the rest of congregation. We are proud of our real unity and spiritual strength, after coming out of a difficult moment, due to some evil attempts of discouragements.

I'm taking care of the weekly Bible studies with several brethren. To my opinion this is the best way to make brethren grow in knowledge and better understanding.

The Chinese group is doing well. Some have moved out of Rome, for work, but others came in willing to understand God's Word. The different language is still a problem but through good will and translator apps things are moving. Anyway, they are very respectful and dedicated toward all of us.

For our mid-class study on Wednesday evening, I'm continuing the reading and commenting of John's gospel. We completed chapter 13.

Our general attendance runs around 38 (including the few brethren that still join us at distance through Zoom).

VISITORS FROM OTHER CHURCHES. We had the joy to meet some brethren coming from other churches. I'd like to mention their names: Jeff & Martha Arches (Athens, AL); Brent & Ashley Hurst (Dunlap, TN); Danielle Forrest (Ventura, CA); Kaleb Wininger (Fort Worth, TX); David & Kathy McCoy (Lynchburg, TN); Sam & Nancy Freesmeyer (Johns Creek, GA). We thank those brethren for their encouragement and good example.

Thanks again for your patient fellowship toward us in this work. We will be always in debt with you all. The brethren in Rome salute you, sending their best greetings and love.

Antonella, Valeria and Paolo send their good wishes. God may continue to bless us in His Kingdom. Be safe and stay well in Him.

"They of Italy salute you".
