

The prodigal (Luke 15: 11-32) comes home. What happened the next day when the feast has been eaten, the music has stopped and everyone had gone home?

A. Some things had not changed:

He was still under his father's _____
 He still had an _____ brother
 He still had the taste of _____

B. Four things that the Next Day Presented to the Prodigal

1. He had a _____ to live with Forgiven, there remains _____
 Forgiven, others _____
 - not to live with _____; not to return to that _____; accept the Father's _____;
 forgive _____

2. He had to learn his new _____ Instead of a servant, he was a _____: _____ he was _____ His Father wanted him to _____ at the table, _____ in the house and _____ the relationship

3. He began to build new _____ Change his _____ Change his _____
 Change his _____ with his Father

4. He had to face old _____
 Not everyone is going to forgive like _____
 Not everyone is going to give you a _____
 - remain _____; stay _____; be _____ to God

Don't run without God...Don't run ahead of God...Don't run behind God
 Stay with Him: now, the next day and forever