

As we journey “with the Lord” and “with each other,” what can we learn from Israel’s journey across the wilderness?

Deuteronomy 1:2: an ____-day journey that took ____ years

- Numbers 10: after nearly a year, Israel _____ Mount Sinai
- Numbers 11: the people _____ about their misfortunes
- Numbers 12: Miriam and Aaron _____ Moses
- Numbers 13: _____ are sent from Kadesh-barnea into Canaan
- Numbers 14: the people _____ against Moses and Aaron

“According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, a _____ for each day, you shall bear your iniquity forty years, and you shall know my displeasure.” (14:34)

- Numbers 16-17: Korah leads a rebellion
- Numbers 20: the people _____ with Moses over the lack of water
- Numbers 21: the people speak against _____ and Moses

Psalm 78: “Give ear, O my people”

- What was the LORD looking for all along? A people who _____ their _____ in him (78:5-7). What does that look like (78:7-8)?
 - They don’t _____ his works
 - They _____ his commandments
 - Their hearts are _____
 - Their _____ are faithful to God
 - They aren’t stubborn and rebellious like some were _____ them
- The challenge? Practicing that when I’m the one “in the wilderness,” when it’s easy to...
 - Turn _____ on the day of battle (78:9)
 - Forsake my _____ with the LORD (78:10)
 - _____ his works and the wonders he has shown (78:11-16)
 - Rebel against the Most High (78:17), testing him in my heart (78:18-20)
- All along, what was the LORD looking for? A people who _____ his saving power (78:21-22). “Can God spread a table in the wilderness?”
 - Life isn’t _____ in the wilderness.
 - I may be there because of my own _____ or someone else’s.
 - It’s easy to focus on what I _____ have in the wilderness.
 - I may not pass through in my _____.
- “_____...” (78:23-25, 38)
