

RISE UP, O MEN OF GOD

WEDNESDAY EVENING BIBLE STUDY

Rise up, O men of God!
Have done with lesser things;
Give heart and soul and mind and strength
To serve the King of kings.

Rise up, O men of God!
His kingdom tarries long.
Bring in the day of brotherhood
And end the night of wrong.

Rise up, O men of God!
The church for you doth wait,
Her strength unequal to her task.
Rise up and make her great!

Lift high the cross of Christ!
Tread where His feet have trod.
As brothers of the Son of Man,
Rise up, O men of God!

- William P. Merrill (1911)

- A “man of God” is...
- What sort of “lesser things” must men of God intentionally keep in perspective and priority?
- In everyday terms, what does it mean to “give heart and soul and mind and strength” in service to Jesus?
- “Brotherhood” matters because...
- In what ways is the church “waiting,” generation after generation, for men of God to rise up?
- What does “the cross of Christ” have to do with being a man of God?

- What qualifies us to make our way through life “as brothers of the Son of Man,” and what difference should that perspective make on our lives?
- Men of God are desperately needed in today’s world. In what areas of life and spheres of influence can we “rise up” and make a difference for the good of others and the glory of God?
