Dear brethren and friends,
hope to find you doing just fine. Here's my June 2026 report: good reading.

God bless you all. Love.

NEWS FROM ROME (ITALY)

Rome, June 15, 2026

Dear brethren in Christ,
my wife Antonella and I hope to find all of you enjoying every material and spiritual blessing. We would like to share with you our deep feelings of gratefulness for your fellowship in our preaching of the gospel also in Rome. In spite of the many difficulties to announce God's Word in this pagan city, we are doing our best in reaching as many as possible to Christ, certain to find good hearts.

PERSONAL NEWS. We are doing fine in everything. Our three grandchildren (Alessandro 11, Alice 10, Samuele 6) are growing well. They just finished their school year and from this week started the vacation time, until September. They will be often with us since our daughter Valeria will have to work. Obviously, for us would be a joy.

Our son Paolo is also OK. He is really busy with the job, at the beginning of vacation season. Anyway, he is doing what he can also in helping with the local work of the church. He must become one of the new spiritual sources of the congregation, in order to carry on the work done in many tears.

We are still under a serious economic pressure due to the unstable political situation that is hitting Europe. We hope and pray for peace and stability.

LOCAL PREACHING ACTIVITY. Our local work is moving well according to our expectations and programs. We are living a moment of good unity, which allows us to work together with joy and solid perspectives.

As already written, I'm particularly involved in the personal meetings and studies with the young brethren of the church. This is a good way to know better one another, understanding characters and individual attitudes. I want to involve them in the teaching programs as much as possible.

The Chinese group is increasing week by week. They can follow my teachings through translator apps and all seems to go well. At least, we can have a sort of communication. Their attitude and behaviors are always nice and respectful toward me. I always invite them to speak up if they need further explanations or clarifications about the doctrinal matters that I may touch.

During the midweek class on Wednesday, I finished the comments on the gospel of John and started lessons from Ephesians.

Our general attendance runs around 35 (including the brethren that sometime join us at distance through Zoom).

VISITORS FROM OTHER CHURCHES. Also this month we had the joy to meet some brethren coming from US churches. I'd like to mention their names: Dave & Heather Hamlett (Bowling Green, KY); Andrew & Andy Adams (Lufkin, TX); Connor & Karissa Lachappelle (Covington, GA); Steve & Holly Langley (Howey in the Hills, FL); James, Allison, Ella, Luca Jacobelli (Riverview, FL). We thank those brethren for their love and strong encouragement.

Thanks again for your patient fellowship toward us in this work. We will be always in debt with you all. The brethren in Rome salute you, sending their best greetings and love.

Antonella, Valeria and Paolo send their good wishes. God may continue to bless us in His Kingdom. Be safe and stay well in Him.

"They of Italy salute you".
