Genesis 16

“Where have you come from and where are you going?”

Questions
God Asks

To read before class: Genesis 16

How does Genesis 16 fit into the story of Abraham and Sarah? Big-picture-wise, what is going on?

Why do you think Sarai said what she did in 16:2?

In 16:8, the angel of the LORD finds Hagar by a spring of water in the wilderness and asks her two questions: “Where have you come from and where are you going?” Why? Why would an all-knowing God ask these questions?

- ❖ What do these questions tell us about God?
- ❖ What do these questions tell us about Hagar?
- ❖ Most close to home, what impression should these questions asked by the LORD make on us?
