New Community Bible Study

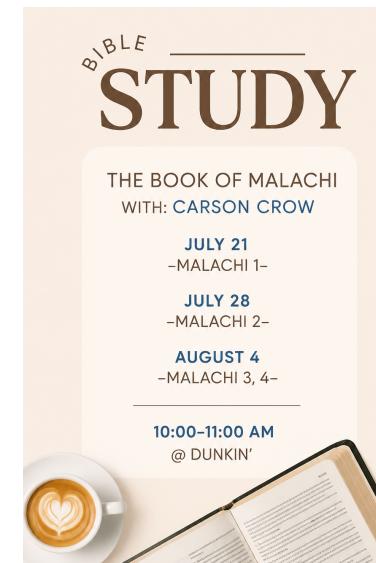

Carson Crow

This Tuesday, we'll be kicking off The Dunkin' Study at the Dunkin' just down the road. We'll meet each Tuesday at 10:00 AM (with a few exceptions throughout the year) for a verse-by-verse study through books of the Bible. As we finish one book, we'll simply move on to the next.

Lauren and I have been doing this for the past three years, and it has become one of our favorite things on the calendar. Not only has it been a wonderful opportunity for spiritual growth among our church family and ourselves, but it has also opened doors to reach people outside the church. There is something inviting about seeing a group of people gathered over coffee, laughing, praying, and studying God's Word together.

By the end of our time in Atlanta, what began as just a few members from the congregation had grown into a regular group of around fifteen people. Among them were Catholics, Methodists, and even one self-proclaimed prophet! By God's grace, several of those individuals began attending worship with us regularly, and one was even baptized into Christ.

If your schedule allows, I'd love for you to join us as we grow together and seek to be a light in our community. Whether you're retired, a stay-at-home parent, homeschooled, have Tuesdays off, or simply have a free morning, you're invited. We'd love to have you with us.

To our guests...
