"In the Morning I Prepare"

Jason Hardin

Take a moment to reflect on the words of David from Psalm 5:3 as you prepare your heart for worship:

O LORD, in the morning you hear my voice;
in the morning I prepare a sacrifice for you and watch.

We are gathering in the presence of the God who hears. He is I AM. He has always been and will forever be. He is everywhere, never absent or distant, and he hears—not just the good and the happy, not exclusively the eloquent or even only what is spoken out loud. The LORD hears our groaning (5:1). He hears our cries and our prayers (5:2). This morning, the LORD hears your voice.

That truth leads David to respond: "In the morning I prepare a sacrifice for you." Notice how personal those words are. "I prepare." No one is doing the work for David. Indeed, it was David who said in 2 Samuel 24:24, "I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God that cost me nothing." Today, on this side of the cross, we're not preparing burnt offerings as disciples of Jesus, but notice the encouragement for Christians in Hebrews 13:15-16:

Through [Christ] let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

"In the morning I prepare a sacrifice for you and watch." Let's wake up, focus, be eagerly attentive and enthusiastically engaged as we follow in the footsteps of Psalm 5:3. Let's wholeheartedly bring our best and just watch as God does the rest. We're glad you're here.
