

If we never meet again this side of Heaven
As we struggle through this world and its strife,
There's another meeting place somewhere in Heaven
By the side of the river of life,
Where the charming roses bloom forever
And where separations come no more.
If we never meet again this side of Heaven
I will meet you on that beautiful shore.

Our love to you,
Roger & Debbie

AUGUST 16, 2026

Thank You
Roger Shouse

In March 2008, I moved to this area from Kansas City and began a work with you. Today that work comes to a conclusion. What a wonderful chapter this has been for me in the book of life. It's been one of the favorite chapters.

Parting is hard. What makes it hard is that our hearts have grown together in love. I have been honored beyond what I deserve to be able to stand before you each week and preach the word of God. You have blessed me by being such a gracious audience, supporting me, encouraging me, helping me and showing your love and faith in the Lord.

Among disciples, partings are never "good-bye." It is always, "see you after awhile." Whether on this side of life or the next side, what a joy it will be to see each other again. It's been a joy beyond words to have been in your homes and hearts. I treasure so many wonderful moments, many shared with those who are now on the other side. You have helped me much more than I have helped you and for that, "Thank you."

It's been a blessing to work alongside of Jason. You are so blessed to have such a faithful, dedicated and true disciple among you. He is truly a friend of God and one of my dear friends.

My email address and phone number remains the same. I will help you in any way that I can. Our new address is: 15067 Carrick Road, Noblesville, IN 46062. I leave you with two thoughts:

First, had it not been for the Lord... we would have never known each other and would have missed some of the best blessings ever. Had it not been for the Lord. Thank you, Lord!

Second:
