My Light, Salvation & Stronghold

Jason Hardin

In Psalm 27:1, David provided for all time these beautiful words:

> The LORD is my light and my salvation;
> whom shall I fear?
> The LORD is the stronghold of my life;
> of whom shall I be afraid?

Think about the meaning and significance of those descriptors as we head into a new God-given week.

The LORD is my light. He has revealed himself as my Creator, the Source of life and light and joy. He has described what was before me, the purpose of my existence, the meaning of my life, and what lies beyond my brief time on this earth.

The LORD is my salvation. Like every other image-bearer before me, I have sinned and fallen short of the glory for which I was created, but he has acted to reconcile the world to himself. He loved first. Full of mercy and grace, he reached out first.

The LORD is my stronghold. Though he has revealed and intervened and accomplished as the world's true and rightful King, life under the sun is still hard. Evil is real. Evildoers are active. Adversaries and foes continue to do their worst, for a little while. But the LORD is my light, my salvation, and my stronghold. Whom shall I fear? Of whom shall I be afraid?

And so we continue to pray with David. "Teach me your way, O LORD, and lead me on a level path." We continue to encourage each other, "Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage." Let's praise him together today.

"Only let your manner of life be (politeuesthe, _____ as _____) worthy of the gospel of Christ…" (Phil 1:27)

- Philippi was a proud Roman colony (Acts 16:12) where the honor of Roman citizenship and the privilege of land ownership had first been extended to veteran soldiers.
- But for saints in Philippi…
  - The model of their manner of life wasn't _____ (Matt 4:23-5:12)
  - What they sought first wasn't the empire of _____ (Matt 6:33)
- So what would that look like in everyday life?

Gospel-shaped unity that brings joy to the journey

- Christ Jesus has been and forever will be highly _____ (Phil 2:9-11); _____ that fact.
- Christ Jesus took the form of a _____ (2:5-8); _____ that mindset.
- Christ Jesus is calling us to _____ in the same "manner of life" (2:1-4); complete this circle of joy (Heb 12:1-2) by being of the same _____.
- Christ Jesus is already the true _____ of the world, though most of the world doesn't know it yet (1:27-30); stand _____…
  - Firm in one _____
  - Striving side by side with _____ mind
  - For the faith of the _____
  - Not _____ in anything

Joy is rooted in Christ, expressed through united relationships and selfless service, sustained through suffering and uncertainty, anchored in the fact that Jesus is King.
